

END OF ERA MARCH 2008

14th February, 2008

It is with much sadness that the Sleeping Storm Dojo will close its doors as a Martial Arts Centre at the end of March 2008. All classes will continue for the next few weeks and the Instructors for each art will inform members of new Venues and times etc.

I wish all members success in the future; please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.
